

CITY OF SPOKANE

SALUTATION

WHEREAS, Bob Nelson saw a need for a theater in Spokane that made people think and acted on that need by building Stage Left Theater which is not only thriving today, but continues to be a model for small community theaters everywhere; and

WHEREAS, from the very first Stage Left production when Bob played Karl Marx in Marx in Soho to sweeping national awards in 2023, Stage Left has brought politically and socially relevant works to life; and

WHEREAS, Bob Nelson has created a legacy of high quality impactful work that continues to inspire new generations of artists:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lisa Brown, Mayor of the City of Spokane, on behalf of the people of Spokane, do hereby salute

BOB NELSON

For his many contributions and longtime dedication to the theater community in Spokane and for creating a theatrical space which not only makes people think, but also produces the highest quality work which will continue to inspire the people of Spokane for generations to come.

I, Lisa Brown, Mayor of Spokane, do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Spokane to be affixed this 9th day of April 2024.
