 - Council is working on updating policies surrounding the shared bicycle program.
 - The Central City Line is morning forward and it will be a significant benefit to the community. Federal funding for this project is still in progress. STA is hopeful the project will be 80% federally funded.
 - Council is working with the legislature to make sure that tribal members can participate and vote on the SRTC board.
5. Stakeholder Reports
 - John Vansant, District 81, City Council passed the measure for additional funding to support School safety projects. Spokane is 1 of 10 communities that were awarded grant funding to support safe walkability to school.
 - Raychel Callary, Lilac Services for the Blind, attended the transportation board in Washington DC, two major themes of the event were connectivity and automation. Micromobility was a hot topic on how to better manage the bike share and scooter share programs. Attended a meeting on pedestrian detection at uncontrolled intersection as well.
 - Dennis Morford, CTab, CTab has not met since January. They were working on filling vacancies and they have finally been filled.
 - Charles Hansen, working on traffic calming planning near the Schools for the walkability program.
 - Paul Kropp, Pett Committee, District 81 is providing helmets as needed for children who need them to get safely to school. GIS mapping is being updated and will be a great support for the neighborhoods. Speed hump trial has been approved. When discussing walkability we need to consider unattended consequences such as pedestrian related traffic accidents.
 - Heleen Dewey, Health District, getting ready to launch the walk by bus program in the Monroe district. Safe Routes to School, adding Grant, Sheridan and Roosevelt Elementary Schools to the Safe Routes to School program.
