

September is for Falling in Love with the

Spokane River

Participate in one or more of these great Spokane River events

September 12th

Spokane River Water Splashing Festival, Boulder Beach

Take the opportunity to celebrate, connect with and honor the Spokane River with the goal of creating deeper and more meaningful engagement between local people and the river.

Celebrate. Honor. Immerse ~ 10-noon ~ riversplashing509@gmail.com

September 13th

SpokeFest, Downtown Spokane

Hop on your bike to combine great family fun with river views. Join over 2,000 folks as you choose between 1, 9 and 21 mile river loops. Go to www.spokefest.org for more information and sign-up.

September 14-18

Barge Cleanup on the Spokane River

The City of Spokane will sponsor a cleanup of large trash in the Spokane River between the Division Street and Greene Street bridges.

Watch for a boat, divers, and a platform to hold garbage that has littered the river bed.

September 18

H2O Breakfast. Spokane Convention Center

Join us for breakfast to hear the international award winning Chad Pregracke. Learn about some amazing cleanup efforts happening along the Spokane River.

Go to www.spokaneriver.net/h2obreakfast to sign up.

September 18

Dirty Martinis for Clean Water

All proceeds go to support our work for a Fishable and Swimmable Spokane River. Buy your tickets today! We can't wait to see you there. www.dmcw2015.eventbrite.com

September 19

Spokane River Cleanup

The big event is back !! Join over 500 volunteers picking up litter from State Line to Riverside State Park. Tons of garbage and tons of fun makes for a cleaner, greener Spokane River.

Go to www.spokanerivercleanup.org to sign-up.

September 26

ValleyFest Triathlon, Mirabeau Trailhead, Spokane Valley

Boat, Bike and Run Sprint Triathlon. It's 1.5-mile of flat water Spokane River paddling, 11 miles of road biking, and a 3-mile run on the Spokane River Centennial Trail. Go to www.valleyfest.org to sign-up.

