

1590 Community Support

United for the greater good

Our community is experiencing historically low rental vacancy rates, rising average rents, and increasing median home prices which are outpacing gains in the median household income in Spokane. This is increasing the rent burden on many households and putting homeownership increasingly out of reach for many families.

These regional organizations are in favor of a local tax that can allow investments that will help ease the housing crisis in our community.

Spokane Regional Labor Council

Spokane Low Income Housing Consortium

Spokane Housing Ventures

Washington Community Reinvestment Association

SNAP

Measure Meant

Smith-Barbieri Progressive Fund

Rockwood Retirement Communities

Volunteers of America Eastern WA & Northern ID

Peace & Justice Action League of Spokane

Transitions

Jewels Helping Hands

Passages Family Support

Pioneer Human Services

SEIU Healthcare 1199 NW

Architecture All Forms

Parkview Early Learning Center

Congregation Emanu-El

1889 Salvage Co

Commonwealth

Impact Strategies

Disability Rights Washington

Sunrise Spokane

Wear Law Office

Planned Parenthood Advocates of Greater Washington

Refugee Connections Spokane

Spokane Alliance

Better Health Together

Westminster Congregational United Church of Christ

Greater Spokane Progress

Health Equity Circle (Spokane)

Community Frameworks

Refugee Connections Spokane

MCAS (Muslims for Community, Action & Support)

Salem Lutheran Church

Planned Parenthood Advocates of Greater WA and N Idaho

Fuse Washington

Our Natural Homes LLC

St. Davids Episcopal Church

West Central Abbey

MIA - Mujeres in Action

Westminster Presbyterian Church

St. David's Episcopal Church

Spokane Immigrant Rights Coalition

Latinos en Spokane

Smart Justice Spokane

Ironworkers Local #14

Catholic Charities

SEIU 775

Westminster

Big Table

Domaci Property Management LLC

