

Saluting the bravery of Spokane Police Officer Tim Schwering

WHEREAS, the Spokane Police Department is tasked to serve and protect the citizens of Spokane; and

WHEREAS, the Spokane Police Department trains its officers to make critical decisions to determine what necessary actions need to be taken to ensure the public's safety; and

WHEREAS, members of the Spokane Police Officers often go above and beyond their duties of fulfilling their duties; and

WHEREAS, Spokane Police Officer, Tim Schwering, demonstrated exceptional service by going above and beyond his duties by risking his own life to rescue Kim Novak from a burning vehicle on January 20th 2017; and

WHEREAS, Officer Schwering demonstrated further character and compassion by following up with Kim Novak to see that she was doing well following the incident.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Council of the City of Spokane, that we thank Officer Tim Schwering for his heroic action in freeing Kim Novak from a burning vehicle and for continuing to show compassion for members of the community beyond the call of duty.

I, Ben Stuckart, Spokane City Council President, do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Spokane to be affixed this 30th day of January in 2017

Ben Stuckart
President, Spokane City Council