

MAYOR BROWN'S OFFICE
CEREMONIAL DOCUMENT REQUEST FORM

Mayor Lisa Brown believes in recognizing citizens and organizations important to Spokane. The Mayor's Office offers three types of ceremonial documents for qualified applicants:

- Proclamation – to proclaim an honorary day, week, or month in the city.
- Salutation – to salute an individual or organization for exceptional personal or civic achievement.
- Greetings – to welcome visitors to Spokane meetings, conventions or special events.

Because of the volume of requests for these documents, the Mayor's Office has established some basic rules to ensure our ability to meet as many of these requests as possible. We will let you know promptly if we cannot honor your request.

1. Requests must be made a minimum of three weeks in advance, regardless of whether an organization has previously received a ceremonial document from the Mayor.
2. Only one proclamation per year, per individual or organization will be considered.
3. Limit of three (3) WHEREAS statements per proclamation.
4. Proclamations generally are not offered for out-of-city events or for-profit causes.
5. We may edit draft language for length or content.
