

CITY OF SPOKANE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Steve Salvatori moved to Spokane or "Steve Town" in 2007, where he soon founded the Spokane Entrepreneurial Centers and later served on City Council from 2012-2014; and

WHEREAS, the Spokane Entrepreneurial Centers were started to support local emerging business owners with space and assistance directly from Steve, whom successfully owned his own business; and

WHEREAS, during his time as a City Councilman, Steve diligently worked with other Councilmembers, regardless of their party, to find solutions to problems facing the city and to push for legislation he believed in; and

WHEREAS, his ability to find common ground and compromise even in the most difficult of circumstances won the respect of his fellow Councilmembers and City employees and serves as Steve's legacy on the City Council; and

WHEREAS, with a graceful approach and fun-loving personality, Steve quickly set people at ease and made him a tremendous asset in bringing community together; and

WHEREAS, Steve also served the community as Vice Chairman of Greater Spokane Inc.'s Small Business Council as well as on several boards including the Spokane Public Market Board and volunteer Park Board; and

WHEREAS, his brilliance, generosity, and warmth made him widely respected and loved by all who knew and worked alongside him:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of the City of Spokane, on behalf of the citizens of Spokane, do hereby proclaim December 2nd, 2022, as in Spokane and encourage all citizens to honor his legacy of public service.

STEVE SALVATORI DAY

I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of Spokane, do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Spokane to be affixed this 28th day of November 2022.

A handwritten signature in purple ink that reads "Nadine Woodward".

Nadine Woodward
Mayor

