

CITY OF SPOKANE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the arts and humanities are the foundation for strong communities and allow city, state and national governments as well as the public to connect cultures, highlight inequities, promote individual wellbeing and work towards inclusive growth; and

WHEREAS, it is continually important to follow the lead of national arts partners in focusing on equitable access to the arts as well as raising awareness of the role arts and humanities play in our communities not just in the month of October but every day of the year; and

WHEREAS, many organizations, individuals and partners within the creative community were effected greatly by the pandemic and are just now starting to bounce back, making it imperative to celebrate their resilience and encourage new growth:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of the City of Spokane, on behalf of the citizens of Spokane, do hereby proclaim September as in Spokane and encourage all community members in Spokane to recognize the important role that the arts and humanities play in our community.

ARTS AND HUMANITIES MONTH

I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of Spokane, do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Spokane to be affixed this 13th day of September 2023.

Nadine Woodward
Mayor
