

CITY OF SPOKANE

SALUTATION

WHEREAS, Don Santos lost his wallet and after giving up hope of finding it, captured a stranger on camera dropping off the wallet at his house five days later, and in hopes of finding the individual, posted the picture on Facebook; and

WHEREAS, Garth Hicks, who was identified as the man on camera through the power of social media, can best be described as a good Samaritan, a term used to describe an individual who does good deeds out of compassion and not because of any hope of reward; and

WHEREAS, Garth Hicks' simple act, shared by many who saw the post on social media, has brought attention to the 'good people' – the often unnoticed individuals who act with integrity, show kindness and compassion without asking for anything in return, and showcase the ideals we should all aspire to on a daily basis:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of the City of Spokane, on behalf of the citizens of Spokane, do hereby salute for being a good Samaritan in our community and reminding us all that we are at our best when we support and care for one another.

GARTH HICKS

I, Nadine Woodward, Mayor of Spokane, do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Spokane to be affixed this 12th day of May 2021.

A handwritten signature in purple ink that reads "Nadine Woodward".

Nadine Woodward
Mayor

