SCAM Alert

Courts in the State of Washington, as well in other states across the nation, are receiving a high volume of calls concerning various email and text message related to past due fines, auto licensing issues, warrants for failing to appear, etc.

Although the Spokane Municipal Court does provide text notifications concerning court dates, warrants, etc., to customers who have signed up for the service, we will never send a text or email demanding immediate payment under threat of some adverse action against you. If you receive such a text or email purporting to be from the Spokane Municipal Court, it is a scam, and you should NOT send money or call the number indicated on the text or email.

We realize these prolific scams are causing a good deal of consternation and confusion to our customers and the community as a whole. Although we are apologetic the unscrupulous scammers picked our organization to perpetrate their fraud, please understand we have absolutely no control over these scammers and are doing our best to manage the situation.

If you have questions regarding one of these communications purported to be from the Spokane Municipal Court, please contact us at (509) 625-4400. We will be happy to review data from our information systems, confirm any issues with cases you may have in our court, and dispel any misinformation that may have been included in one of these fraudulent messages.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.
