Encanto Gala Dinner & Auction

The Encanto Gala is an evening of enchantment and entertainment in the pursuit of education. A silent auction and cocktail hour will be followed by an elegant dinner and unique musical presentation that pairs the ethereal beauty of classical Opera Arias with the charm of Mariachi bolero. The program features Jose Iniguez, Opera Tenor, classical pianist, Jeremy Neufeld, Mariachi Guzman de Pasco, and narrator, Dr. John Fraire, Washington State Arts Commissioner.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2014 PROGRAM

Event Partners

EWU Iniguez Family Endowment

The Iniguez Family Endowment scholarship (Federal Tax ID: 91-1019819) was founded by eleven siblings in appreciation and gratitude to the fearless community leadership and passion for education that their parents, Santiago Iniguez and Guadalupe Rodriguez, modeled. Standing as a testament to the American Dream, all eleven Iniguez siblings hold at least a bachelor's degree and credit hard work, determination, and the indispensable element of familial support to their success.

Scholarships are bestowed to Mexican-American students who are active in the Latino community with preferences given to first generation students.

HBPA Foundation of the Inland Northwest

HBPA Foundation of the Inland NW is a non-profit IRS C(3) organizations affiliated with HBPA of Spokane, providing college scholarships and promoting an annual Recognition Ceremony to celebrate educational success among Hispanic/Latino graduating students. The ceremony recognizes scholastic achievement of Hispanic/Latino youth in these categories:

- College/University Graduate
- High School Graduate
- Young Scholar (7th - 11th grade; GPA 3.0 or above)
