INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

A citizen complained over police disobeying traffic laws without active emergency lights. The complainant says he was crossing the street in the designated crosswalk. A dark police car that was improperly blocking the crosswalk, sped off as soon as he had cleared the front of the police vehicle. The vehicle drove off too fast for him to get the plate number.

INVESTIGATION

There is no identifying information in this complaint. The complainant couldn't even provide the color of the vehicle.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Vehicles are assigned to particular officers. They have individual numbers and license plates. Officers are logged on with their vehicle information. Internal Affairs investigates driving complaints when the officer can be identified.
