INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Internal Affairs received a complaint letter from a jail inmate in reference to a pending case. The complainant is alleging that officers lied in their police reports and that there was a conspiracy to get him arrested.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The Internal Affairs Investigator spoke with the complainant at the jail. He was told we would not work on this complaint until his criminal case was completed. He has raised all of these concerns in his criminal trial. The investigator told the complainant he would need to contact Internal Affairs when his criminal case was completed. He said he understood. This case was administratively suspended until the criminal case is completed, and the complainant moves forward with a complaint.
