INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Complainants alleged that two Spokane Police Officers repeatedly followed them over a period of three months through downtown Spokane while making accusatory comments about them over the patrol vehicle's PA system.

COMPLAINT

Complainants allege the actions of the accused officers were discourteous and disrespectful.

INVESTIGATION

The complainants did not respond to requests for an interview. The officers were both interviewed and denied the allegations. There were no witnesses and no corroborating evidence to support the allegations.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The accused officers' interviews provided no evidence of misconduct on the part of either officer.
