INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Over the span of several months, a Spokane Police Officer contacted the complainant, some of the complainant's employees, and patrons of the complainant's business property to perform inspections related to the enforcement of State and Local laws pertaining to liquor licenses, marijuana business licenses, and entertainment facilities licenses.

COMPLAINT

The complainant alleges a Spokane Police Officer made disparaging remarks about the complainant to the complainant's employees and customers.

INVESTIGATION

The investigation consisted of reviewing multiple police reports, reviewing multiple body camera videos, and interviewing the complainant, the accused officer, and multiple persons listed as witnesses.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The evidence did not support the allegations of Demeanor & Conduct Unbecoming. The actions of the accused officer were lawful and within the established Spokane Police Policies and Procedures. Therefore, the allegations were deemed unfounded.
