INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

The complainant responded to the complainant's residence on a complaint that her neighbor was taking down her fence that separated their properties. The officers determined that the dispute between the neighbors was civil in nature

COMPLAINT

The complainant alleges the officers should have stopped her neighbor from dismantling and replacing the fence that separates their properties.

INVESTIGATION

Internal Affairs reviewed the incident, including the body worn camera video. It was determined that the complainant's neighbor is who originally installed the fence in question, and was in the process of replacing/updating the current fence.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

This complaint was classified as an inquiry as the allegations were a question of proper police authority in civil matters, and not an allegation of any policy violation.
