INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

On 10/16/19, two Spokane Police officers responded to a complaint involving multiple parties arguing. The officers assisted by keeping the peace while two parties removed their personal belongings from an apartment.

COMPLAINT

The complainant alleged both officers failed to take reasonable action, and also alleged that one of the officers was rude.

INVESTIGATION

The investigation consisted of interviews of participating witnesses, interviews of involved officers, and viewing videos from officer's body-worn cameras.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The actions of both officers were deemed to have been consistent with Spokane Police Department Policy and Procedures. The officers were EXONERATED for each allegation of Demeanor and Inadequate Response.
