INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

On 04/11/2020, Spokane Police officers responded to a neighborhood dispute in north Spokane. The officers determined no probable cause existed to charge anyone with a crime.

COMPLAINT

The complainant alleged the primary officer was discourteous and disrespectful, and the officer failed to take reasonable action.

INVESTIGATION

The Internal Affairs investigation consisted of a review of the body-worn camera videos from both officers, a review of the CAD report, and interviews with a witness and both officers. The Internal Affairs investigation was reviewed by the officer's chain of command.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The actions of the accused officer were deemed to have been within the Spokane Police Department policies and practice. The accused officer was Exonerated from the allegations of Demeanor and Inadequate Response.
