INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Spokane Police officers responded to an alleged Domestic Violence Assault. Officers determined no probable cause existed to charge any of the involved parties with a crime. A report was written to document the incident.

COMPLAINT

The reporting party was not satisfied with the case resolution and submitted a complaint through the Spokane Police Office of Professional Accountability. The allegation was Inadequate Response.

INVESTIGATION

The Internal Affairs investigation consisted of a review of police reports and video from the officer's body-worn camera.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The actions of the accused officer were found to be within established Spokane Police Department policies. The facts and evidence available at the time of the officer's investigation did not provide probable cause to charge any of the involved parties with a crime. The investigation was classified as CLOSED because the allegation of misconduct was disproven upon initial review.
