INCIDENT SYNOPSIS:

An incarcerated individual claimed that an SPD officer contacted him on a traffic stop.

COMPLAINT:

The complainant claimed that the officer stolen money and property from him.

INVESTIGATION:

The investigation was initially referred to an outside agency to investigate the criminal elements alleged. The criminal investigation was concluded and no charges were filed against the officer. The investigator then interviewed the complainant and the accused officer. The investigator researched property records, viewed available video evidence, and requested video evidence from the complainant, which the complainant said they had.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION:

The complainant never provided the video evidence they claimed supported the allegation. There was no other evidence that could either prove or disprove the allegation.
