INCIDENT SYNOPSIS:

A Spokane police officer responded to a vehicle theft call. The officer determined no crime had occurred and that it was a civil issue between a buyer and seller of a vehicle.

COMPLAINT:

The complainant alleged that the responding officer entered false information into CAD and drew incorrect assumptions.

INVESTIGATION:

The investigator reviewed CAD records and body worn camera footage.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION:

The investigation concluded that the officer's CAD report entries were accurate and that the reported vehicle theft was a civil dispute.
