INCIDENT SYNOPSIS:

The Spokane County District court issued a protection order and “order to surrender firearms” to the complainant. The complainant surrendered several firearms pursuant to this order. Several months later, the complainant was allowed to retrieve his firearms. When he retrieved his firearms, the complainant found damage to an accessory item.

COMPLAINT:

The complainant alleged his firearm accessory was damaged by an SPD Employee. The complainant had other concerns with the court and a display at the SPD Property Facility that did not constitute policy violations.

INVESTIGATION:

The investigator interviewed the complainant and a property employee. The investigator reviewed court documents, reports, and body worn camera footage.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION:

The investigation showed there was some damage to the complainant’s firearms accessory at the time he surrendered his firearms. The investigation concluded the complainant’s other concerns did not involve SPD personnel. Those concerns were forwarded to the appropriate agency.
