INCIDENT SYNOPSIS:

A complainant in an incident was concerned that the evidence they provided was not examined by the crime laboratory. The complainant was also concerned that the police were being used to harass her by complaints from a former dating partner.

COMPLAINT:

See above.

INVESTIGATION:

Police reports, BWC, CAD entries, and WSP crime lab results were reviewed.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION:

A review of the case showed that the evidence had been examined by the WSP crime lab prior to this complaint being alleged. The complainant wished for no contact from the police, and they did not respond to voice messages left by an Internal Affairs Investigator. A review of the calls for service alleged as harassment showed the police response to be appropriate with the information known at the time. This complaint was closed as unfounded.
