Summary:

On 07-01-13 Ofc. Kernkamp and Ofc. Valdez responded to a domestic violence call in the 1200 block of N. Lincoln. A third party complainant reported a female, later identified as #1 #1 was hit in the head by a male that was with her. The male suspect, later identified as Miles Standing Rock, was located inside their apartment at 1217 N. Lincoln #6 when police arrived. Based on the information obtained at the scene, both officers developed probable cause to arrest the suspect for city assault D.V.

The suspect refused multiple commands to exit his apartment and was observed leaning out his apartment window. At the same time, the intoxicated victim was trying to re-enter the apartment through the front door. Given the violent nature of domestic violence calls, the concern for the victim, and the totality of the circumstances, both officers grabbed the suspect by his arms as his arms were extended outside the window. The suspect resisted and tried to pull himself back into his apartment. When the officers tried to pull the suspect back towards them, the suspect hit his nose on the the wood frame window that was slid up into the open position. The impact caused a minor laceration on the suspects nose.

I contacted the suspect at Deaconess hospital where he was being treated for the injury to his nose prior to being booked into jail. I advised the suspect I would like to talk to him about the incident that occurred today. The suspect immediately told me that he was beaten by the police on a prior arrest and he did not want to talk to me. It should be noted that the suspect's speech was slurred and his eyes were red and watery. The suspect appeared intoxicated and I did not try to speak to him any further about the incident. Cpl. N. Lundgren photographed the injury to the suspect's nose.

Ofc. Valdez and Ofc. Kernkamp did not believe the victim witnessed the struggle between themselves and the suspect. They also did not believe there were any other witnesses to the incident.

I responded to the victim's apartment in an attempt to contact her. There was no answer at the door to her apartment.

I reviewed both officers reports. I found the injury to the suspect's nose to be consistent with the altercation that was reported. The injury was unintentional and occurred when the suspect resisted being taken into custody. The amount of force used in this incident appeared to be within policy and reasonable under the circumstances.

Reviewer comment:

The officers feared that #1 would re-enter her residence and place herself in a hazardous situation with Standingrock - who had already assaulted her. The officers had PC to arrest Standingrock for City Assault DV. The officers did not unlawfully enter Standingrock's residence but took control of the parts of Standingrock that he willingly and voluntarily stuck outside his apartment window - as they took control of his arms and brought him outside. Standingrock stuck his nose as he resisted the officers' efforts to accomplish this.

The amount of force used to bring Standingrock into custody was reasonable.

CC(s) of this routing were sent to the following:

Reviewer comment:

The officers had genuine and legitimate concern for the victim of the DV assault. The victim was attempting to regain entry into the residence where the suspect was still located which put her in additional danger. Officers had an obligation to protect the victim and take the suspect into custody. When the opportunity presented itself where they could safely and appropriately take the suspect into custody and stop any further contact with the victim, they reacted to control the scene. Officers advised the suspect that he was under arrest and he resisted. During his resistance, he struck his nose on the window frame. Had he not resisted the officers lawful arrest, the injury would not have occurred. The injury was caused by his actions and was not caused by any type of force that the officers used on the suspect. Officers actions were appropriate and justified.

NARRATIVE

On 07-01-13 at 1717 hrs, Ofc Kernkamp and I were riding in a two man patrol car. We responded to 1217 N Monroe after Alexandra Honican called 911 to report she observed a male hitting a female. The male was described as a white male, 30's, 5'5", 150-160 lbs, blond hair. He was wearing a gray tank top and shorts. The male was later identified as Miles Standingrock. The female who was hit was described as a Native American female, 35-40 years old, 5'4", 140 lbs, with dark brown hair. She was wearing a blue floral tank top, Denim Skirt, and tennis shoes. The female was later identified as #1

As we arrived on scene I could see that #1 was sitting on the front porch of 1217 N Monroe. She was very intoxicated and had trouble telling me what had happened #1 said that someone hit her. When I asked #1 who had hit her, she pointed up, indicating an apartment. #1 stated the male who assaulted her was in apartment #4a. I could see the name on apartment #4a mail box was Miles Standingrock. #1 said that she and Standingrock have been living in apartment #4a for the past two months. Neighbors confirmed this and said this is an on going issue with the two of them fighting all of the time. It should also be noted that #1 right cheek underneath her eye was swollen and raised. The raised area was turning purple. Due to her injuries I had developed probable cause to arrest Standingrock for City Assault-DV.

I went up to apartment #4a and knocked on the door. The male inside, Standingrock told me to "fuck off". I announced myself as a Spokane Police Officer. He said to "fuck off" and get a warrant. I told him that I need to speak to him. He came to a window that faced the east and lifted it up. Standingrock knelt down and said that he did not want to speak to me. I continued to ask him about what had happened between him and #1.

During this time Ofc Kernkamp came upstairs. While I was talking to Standingrock, he had knelt in front of the window with his forearms hanging on the outer part of the window. He was waiving his arms around outside the apartment window. Ofc Kernkamp was able to grab Standingrock's right arm and I grabbed his left forearm. See Ofc Kernkamp's report for additional information. Standingrock tried to pull back into the apartment. Fearing he was attempting to get away and try to access a weapon I pulled Standingrock toward the window. His face hit the inside of the window.

Ofc Kernkamp and I were able to pull him down below the window and out of the house. I could see that his nose was bleeding as I handcuffed (D/L F/S). During this time #1 came upstairs and tried to move toward Ofc Kernkamp and I as we placed Standingrock under arrest. I pushed her away and told her to not come near us. She obeyed my commands. Medics were called to the scene to look at Standingrock's nose.

I went over to 1216 N Monroe and contacted the original complainant/witness Alexandra Honican. She stated the following. She was at the front desk when #1 came into the business. #1 appeared to be trying to hide from someone. Honican asked her if she was okay. #1 left the business and walked over to the parking lot to the south of 1217 N Monroe. She followed #1 outside and watched from across the street. She observed the male, Standingrock come outside. At first it looked like he was trying to help #1. Standingrock then struck #1 in the face one with his right hand.

Honican went outside and positive identified Standingrock as the male who struck #1 in the face. Based upon her statement and #1 statement I had developed probable cause to arrest Standingrock for city assault-DV. He was taken to get medical treatment for a on his nose and released. After being medically cleared he was transported to the Spokane County Jail and booked for City Assault-DV. #1 was give crime victim card with the incident number at the scene.

NARRATIVE

On 7/1/13 at 1717 hours Ofc. Valdez and I responded to 1217 N. Lincoln reference a male assaulting a female. The female, described as being Native American was sitting outside on the front porch. The male had gone into an unknown apartment.

Upon arrival I observed a Native American female sitting on the porch. She was extremely intoxicated. I observed the odor of intoxicants coming from her persons. Her speech was slurred and her eyes were bloodshot. She struggled to walk on her own due to her level of intoxication. She was identified as #1

When Ofc Valdez and I contacted #1 we asked her if she had been assaulted. She shook her head yes and pointed up to an apartment window above her. I asked her where she had been assaulted. She pointed to her right cheek. I observed it was slightly irritated and had red marks on it.

She told me her husband had hit her but was very limited on her information. She struggled to tell us her name and was unable or unwilling to tell me his name.

Ofc. Valdez had gone upstairs in an attempt to make contact with the male who we had identified on the mailbox as Miles Standingrock. I could hear the male yelling at Ofc. Valdez. He was yelling "get a warrant". This indicated to me that the male was not cooperating and was attempting to avoid going to jail if he spoke to the Police.

Ofc. Valdez and I determined based on the comments in the call that the witness had observed and #1 statement that PC existed for City Assault DV.

Miles continued to swear at Ofc. Valdez saying "Fuck You I am not coming out." "Get a warrant". The entire time yelling through his front door.

Ofc. Valdez then made contact with him on the side balcony through an open window. Miles was still yelling at him, not cooperating and refusing to let Officers inside to talk to him. His speech was slurred and I could smell the odors of intoxication coming from him as well.

Miles at first was leaning over the outside of the window talking. Then he started yelling again and waiving his arms outside the window. This was a small balcony and there was no room to be physically confrontational with anyone in fear that one or both may place themselves in danger of going over the short railing.

As we were speaking with Miles, #1 had stumbled back up the stairs and was walking inside the apartment. She refused to listen to my orders for her to stop as I did not want her to get assaulted any more. As she was at the door, and Miles was waiving his arms around outside the window I took left arm control and started guiding Miles out of the window. Ofc. Valdez assisted. I told Miles he was under arrest and to stop resisting. He immediately started to pull back into the apartment trying to pull Officers in by bracing himself up against the wall.

I feared that if Miles was not arrested tonight he would continued to fight and assault #1 tonight and I did not want her to get hurt any further than she have already been.

To ensure I maintained control, I pulled slightly harder to counteract Miles efforts. As he was coming out the window he pulled back and arched his head back, pulling against us. Due to his resistive behavior and lack cooperation he skinned his nose on the double hung wood frame windows, creating an avulsion on his nose which started to bleed.

Miles was guided out of the window onto ground and handcuffed (DL). As I was escorting him down the stairs he tried pushing back on me and telling me to push him down the stairs so he could sue me. Miles was safely guided down the stairs where AMR advised he needed to transported to Deaconess.

At Deaconess ER staff determined his nose had scraped some skin off, however there were no broken bones or permanent injuries. He was cleared for jail booking.

Miles was transported to SCJ and booked for City Assault DV. Cpl. Lundgren photographed his injuries.

AMR staff advised that yesterday #1 was in their office hiding from Miles, saying his was being drunk and mean.

Neighbors in the complex informed me that the two were always fighting and arguing and they were tired of the way Miles treats #1

Initially Miles was extremely confrontational and demanded to speak to his attorney he sat in the ER. He later started to sober up and told me as we walked out of the ER, "I guess I need to start treating her better." This statement was made completely voluntarily and unsolicited.

See Ofc. Valdez's report.
