Sender's Instructions: Captain, Attached is a use of force, (straight arm bar take down to cuffing, w/ injury) by officer Golladay for your review. Please let me know if there are any questions. Very Respectfully, Matt
Recipient's Comments/Response: The suspect had escalated from Active Resistance to Assaultive when he decided to strike Officer Mohondro in the face with his fist. The straight arm bar take down was appropriate, reasonable and within policy. The fact that the suspect received a cut above his left eye had no bearing on whether it was a use of force that was within policy. It was incidental to the take down which was within policy. It appears that the officers used the minimal amount of force necessary in order to take the suspect into custody for the assault against his wife and Officer Mohondro.

Sender's Instructions: Please see attached reviews.
Recipient's Comments/Response: In compliance with policy. The inadvertent injury was caused by the suspect colliding with a trash can after striking an officer in the face and subsequently being lowered to the ground using an arm bar takedown.

Incident Being Investigated

This is a review of a straight arm bar take down used during the arrest of Lawrence M Long, by Ofc. Golladay. Officer Mohondro was involved in the arrest and was a witness to the take down and victim when Long punched him in the face. #1a was there and witnessed her husband's behavior and resisting.

Incident Summary

Officers Golladay and Mohondro were investigating a domestic violence at #1d. #1d During the investigation Lawrence, who was intoxicated, was arguing with and trying to obstruct the investigation by yelling at the victim and officers. They developed pc to arrest Lawrence for assaulting his wife #1a. When they told him he was under arrest he resisted by twisting his body and trying to pull his arms free. He did get his left arm free and used it to punch ofc Mohondro in the face. Officer Golladay used a straight arm bar take down to get Lawrence under control. Lawrence was still trying to move around and resist while the technique was being applied. When they spun Lawrence and Ofc Golladay went into some trash cans. Lawrence received a cut above his left eye. Medics came and treated Lawrence for his injury; he was also taken to the hospital for treatment before being cleared for booking.

Officer Interview Summary

My interviews with the officers involved were consistent with their reports (see attached reports).

Witness Summary

I tried to speak to Lawrence who was belligerent and hostile. He claimed that officers had no right to be there and that he was only "defending myself" when officers went to arrest him.

Investigative Summary

Lawrence started out the contact being aggressive and trying to obstruct the investigation. When he was told he was under arrest he resisted arrest by twisting his body to get away. When he got his left arm free he then assaulted Ofc. Mohondro by punching him in the face.

Ofc. Golladay trying to gain control and prevent further assaults used an arm bar take down technique. With Lawrence still resisting while being spun they both went into some garbage cans. When they collided with the cans Lawrence received a cut above his left eye. Ofc. Golladays use of force was reasonable and within department training and policy.

It should be noted that the area where the arrest took place was in the driveway on the side of the house. It was dark with no lighting and during an arrest with an assaultive suspect it is very possible that the officers would not have seen objects (garbage cans) in the dark.

On 9/20/15 at approximately 0133 hours I was working as D478 and was dispatched to #1d. I was driving my fully marked Spokane Police vehicle and wearing my full Spokane

Police uniform. I was dispatched to [REDACTED] #1d on report of a possible domestic violence assault situation.

An "Uber" driver had called and stated he saw a white male punch his girlfriend. The Uber driver had left the location but stated he could return if needed.

As I was approaching the area I saw a white sedan back out of a driveway at a house which I believed to [REDACTED] #1d. The sedan backed out very quickly and I did not know if it was a suspect, victim, or a witness. I activated my overhead lights and saw Officer Mohondro behind me activate his overhead lights as well. The vehicle stopped and I approached the driver with Officer Mohondro. I asked the driver what his name was to which he replied Lawrence M. Long 3/31/77. Lawrence stated he li [REDACTED] #1d with his wife [REDACTED] #1a. I advised Lawrence that we were investigating an assault at the location. I approached [REDACTED] #1d as Officer Mohondro stayed with Lawrence at the vehicle stop.

I knocked on the door to [REDACTED] #1d to try and make contact with whoever was inside. The door was answered by Nathan R. Gregg 9/18/84. I asked Nathan who's house this was and he said his friend, "Jay." I asked Nathan if Jay was Lawrence to which he replied it was. Nathan stated he was staying at the location to help paint it and because he was friends with Lawrence. I advised Nathan I needed to speak with [REDACTED] #1a and if he knew where she was. Nathan did not know. Nathan stated he had heard [REDACTED] #1a and Nathan in a verbal argument but was upstairs getting ready for a bath. I looked around inside of [REDACTED] #1d but did not locate [REDACTED] #1a. As I was walking out of the location a vehicle arrived on scene and inside of it was [REDACTED] #1a. [REDACTED] #1a exited the vehicle and approached me.

I did not observe any injuries on [REDACTED] #1a. I asked [REDACTED] #1a if she was hurt to which she replied she wasn't. I asked [REDACTED] #1a who Lawrence was, [REDACTED] #1a replied it was her husband. I asked [REDACTED] #1a what had happened. [REDACTED] #1a stated she had called for an Uber to come pick her up. When the Uber arrived she had gotten into it but then decided she didn't want to go. [REDACTED] #1a then stated she got into a verbal argument with Lawrence and then decided to leave to cool down. I told [REDACTED] #1a that a witness had stated she had been punched in the face by Lawrence. [REDACTED] #1a stated Lawrence had never punched her in the face and that everything was fine. I advised [REDACTED] #1a to call the Police if anything else was needed.

I had thought that the Uber driver witness had stated the suspect had punched the victim in the face. I did not know that the victim may have possible injuries to other parts of her body.

I approached Officer Mohondro and Lawrence and advised there was no probable cause for an arrest. Officer Mohondro and I left the scene and pulled our vehicles a short distance away. I was advised by Officer Mohondro that he had called and spoke to the Uber driver. Officer Mohondro confirmed the victim had not been punched in the face and had been punched in the stomach instead. Having cleared up some confusion about the location of injuries I made the determination to go and re-contact #1a about any possible abdomen injuries.

Officer Mohondro and I knocked on the front door to #1d. There was no answer at the door. I looked around to the back of the house and saw that the white sedan was parked in the driveway with the front driver door still open. I started to walk along driveway to the rear of the house when I started to hear voices. I looked around the back corner of the house and saw Lawrence and #1a sitting on the back porch. I identified myself and asked #1a if I could speak with her again. Immediately, Lawrence started to yell at me saying I was on his private property and that I could not be there without a warrant. #1a agreed to speak with me and said to wait one second while she put her dogs inside of the house. Lawrence continued to shout saying I needed a warrant to be there. #1a exited the house and walked with me. I asked #1a to move away from visual sight of Lawrence to speak in a safe and secure location. #1a agreed and we started to walk to the front of the house along the driveway. We made it to about midway between the front of the house and the sidewalk when #1a stopped.

I told #1a that I had new information and I believed she had been assaulted in the stomach. #1a did not reply to my observation and made no denial. I asked Jenna if she was going to tell me what happened and she stated nothing had happened. At this time Lawrence walked around from behind the house and again started to yelling at me. #1a was pleading with Lawrence to calm down throughout the interaction.

I was trying to speak with #1a however Lawrence continued to yell at us. I told Lawrence to stay back and to stop yelling at #1a however he continued to shout I needed a warrant and that he had a lawyer.

I was able to ask #1a to walk me through what happened again. #1a again gave the same story. I asked why #1a had left to which she replied she had "lost her breath," saying she had "the wind knocked out of her." I asked how she had lost her breath during a verbal argument. #1a then started to stammer and stated the situation had just upset her. At this time I saw #1a eyes well up and start to water. I told that we had multiple witnesses call in stating Lawrence had hit her in the stomach and knocked her to the ground. At this time #1a became visibly shaken and appeared almost in tears.

At about this time Lawrence started to move closer to where #1a and I were. I saw Lawrence had his fists clenched and appeared to be very upset. Lawrence was shouting "I have friends at the federal level, they'll have no problem filing a formal inquiry, you're both done here." Up until about this time Lawrence was directing his shouting at Officer Mohondro and I. At about this time however he directed the shouting to #1a. Lawrence shouted "if you talk to them you're going to deal with our attorney," "you don't have to talk to them without counsel." Lawrence continued to approach after being told multiple times to stay back.

As Lawrence started to shout at #1a, #1a became even more visibly upset and started to cry. #1a begged me "please don't do this, you don't understand, I've worked so hard for this, I'll have nothing." I tried to stand between #1a and Lawrence because #1a kept glancing towards Lawrence.

Lawrence continued to shout and slowly move closer after being given multiple commands to stop and to stay back. Lawrence then shouted "if you talk to them you're fucking done." #1a continued to cry.

I requested another unit due to how aggressive Lawrence was acting.

I started to walk towards Lawrence at which time he stated "oh, now they're going to arrest me." I advised Lawrence he was under arrest. Lawrence at first put his hands behind his back. I grabbed the right wrist of Lawrence and was able to get the handcuff on. As Officer Mohondro attempted to move his left hand closer Lawrence flexed his upper body and pulled his arms apart. I saw Lawrence break the grip of Officer Mohondro and pull his left arm to his front. Lawrence turned to his left as Officer Mohondro began to move into position to apply an LNR. I saw Lawrence sweep his left arm in front of him from the right to left side in an upward direction with a closed fist. The fist struck Officer Mohondro in the left cheek causing his head to snap back. Officer Mohondro started to move to Lawrence's backside when I conducted a straight arm-bar takedown while holding his right arm. I conducted this move to stop any further assault against Officers by Lawrence. While swinging Lawrence to the left I did not see the a large plastic trash can along the side of the house. Upon seeing the trash can I attempted to stop the takedown however momentum carried Lawrence and me into the trash can. I saw the forehead area of Lawrence strike the trash can towards the top. Lawrence and I then fell to the ground. Lawrence continued to struggle and pull his hands away from me. I shouted multiple times for Lawrence to stop fighting and to put his hands behind his back. Lawrence did not comply. I saw Officer Mohondro with his Taser however prior to activation Lawrence stopped struggling and put his hands behind his back. I handcuffed Lawrence (DL). I then saw that Lawrence was bleeding and requested medical attention and a supervisor. When I looked at Officer Mohondro I saw him holding his jaw with his hand.

While on the ground Lawrence continued to yell and shout. I was able to get my digital recorder out and record statements made by Lawrence. Lawrence continued to shout and I advised him of his Miranda rights. Lawrence kept saying he had a right to defend himself. At one time Lawrence said #1a had "no right to speak to you," and then changed his statement to "she had no obligation to speak to you."

During the fight with Lawrence I saw #1a break down into a complete tears and run northbound on Grand Blvd. Once other Officers started to arrive I went to find #1a and located her walking south on Grand back to her house.

#1a was no longer crying. #1a was afraid to be seen talking to me in front of Lawrence as Lawrence started to shout at #1a. I asked #1a why Lawrence was so upset. #1a said that Lawrence was suppose to be on medication however he doesn't take it all the time and goes crazy.. #1a walked with me to the front of another house so that Lawrence could not see her.

#1a had a glass of water she was drinking and I just let her sit and gather herself before attempting to speak with her again.

I advised Sgt Cordis of what had happened.

I asked #1a to look at her stomach to which she agreed. I did not see any visible injuries. As I was waiting with #1a Officers escorted Lawrence into visible sight of #1a towards a police car. #1a again said "I don't want him to see me."

Once I had the recorder again I took a statement from #1a. #1a at this time confirmed that Lawrence had kicked her in the stomach because he was mad at her. #1a said about three weeks ago Lawrence had choked her but she didn't call the Police. #1a was very scared because she did not earn any money and did not know how she was going to take care of herself and her two children. Lawrence and #1a have been married for about 5 years and have two children. #1a confirmed they were in the driveway when Lawrence kicked her. #1a stated Lawrence resisted arrest and that there was a lot of flaying around. After talking with #1a for a few minutes she started to confront me about who had called the Police. When I told #1a it was just the Uber driver that had called and not her neighbors she became upset at me for lying to her. #1a then started to complain about her stomach hurting because of the assault. #1a then confirmed the Uber driver witnessed the incident. Spokane Fire Department was just leaving the scene when I ran after them to check on #1a.

AMR ambulance arrived on scene and #1a was placed into the rear. I conducted a LAP assessment and #1a did not screen in. #1a expressed great concern about what she was going to do for money due to her dependence on Lawrence. I gave #1a a crime victim card and advised her to call the DV advocates. I advised #1a the usual procedure was that a temporary restraining order was going to be placed against Lawrence. #1a immediately said "is he going to think I put it against him." #1a said this very fearfully and appeared very worried. I asked #1a why that concerned her. #1a stated Lawrence would go crazy if she got the restraining order. Again I advised #1a to contact the DV advocates. #1a was transported to Sacred Heart for evaluation.

I responded to Deaconess and waited with Officer Mohondro while Lawrence was treated. Upon the treatment being finished Lawrence was transported to jail.

On 09/20/2015 at about 0217 hours I heard officers on a DV call asking for additional units at #1d. I then heard an officer's radio being keyed open and the sound of a very agitated person yelling.

I was concerned for the safety of officers on scene based up on the yelling over the radio because the male's voice sounded very agitated towards officers on scene. I arrived on scene at about 0221 hours and activated my Axon body camera. I approached officers and a male who was positioned on his stomach in handcuffs. I observed everyone in the driveway of #1d. Ofc. Mohondro approached me and advised he had been punched in the face while trying to detain the suspect in the DV call. I observed that the handcuffed suspect was calm at this point and he was seated on his bottom in the driveway. Sgt. Cordis arrived and asked the suspect a few questions about his allegations against officers. Medics also arrived and treated the suspect for his injury which appeared to be about a 1 inch cut on his forehead.

I maintained video on the suspect until he was placed in the back seat of the patrol car. See other officers reports for further.

I CERTIFY UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON THAT ALL STATEMENTS MADE HEREIN ARE TRUE AND ACCURATE AND THAT I AM ENTERING MY AUTHORIZED USER ID AND PASSWORD TO AUTHENTICATE IT.

NARRATIVE

On 09/20/2015 at about 0133 hrs I responded with Ofc. Golladay to #1d on a report of a DV. The call stated that the complainant Austin M. Jones advised he was an "Uber" (Taxi) driver and had been at the location. While there, he witnessed the male half punch the female half in the face.

Upon arrival, a white vehicle reversed out of the driveway onto S. Grand Blvd (an arterial) at a high rate of speed without stopping at the curb line. I did not know if the driver was the suspect attempting to flee the scene, a victim, or a witness. Ofc. Golladay and I stopped the vehicle on S. Grand Blvd at E. 23rd Ave.

The driver identified as Lawrence M. Long stopped. He was initially cooperative and appeared confused as to why he was being stopped. Ofc. Golladay went to the residence to contact the victim.

It was explained to Lawrence that someone had called in a DV assault at the residence he had just left. Lawrence said that it was his house and no assault took place. He said he had been downtown with his wife and took an Uber car home with her. He admitted that they had been arguing but no assault had taken place. He continued that he had been married a long time and wouldn't hit his wife. He said, "If I was going to hit anyone I'd pick someone twice my size, and I hope I'd get my ass kicked."

I asked Lawrence what happened that would have lead someone to believe he had punched his wife. His demeanor instantly shifted and he became vulgar, uncooperative and aggressive. Lawrence asked why I was holding him there. I explained that a cab driver called advising he had seen him punch his wife. I could see as he sat in the driver seat that the veins in his forearms became more prominent, sticking out of the skin. I could see the muscles in his neck flex and tighten. I was concerned that Lawrence may try to drive away. Because of this I told him to get out of his vehicle and stand in front of it, which he did. He stormed to the front of his car and placed his hands on the hood, bending forward. He spread his feet apart and said something like 'there, that better for you?'

After this display, Lawrence immediately made a phone call presumably to his wife. He was yelling, telling her to get back to the location immediately to "tell them nothing happened" before hanging up.

Lawrence asked what was taking so long. I told him Ofc. Golladay had to contact his wife and verify her side of the story. I asked Lawrence to walk me through what happened again. He said he wasn't going to answer any more "stupid questions" and added that he "has a great attorney you're going to deal with." Lawrence made a comment to the effect of, "I have friends at the Federal level, do you know what you're getting into?"

Lawrence's wife returned to the residence where Ofc. Golladay contacted her. Lawrence calmed down enough that I could engage him in conversation without him becoming unnecessarily angry. I explained to him that we just needed to clear up the situation with both parties and that if nothing happened like he said he would be free to go as soon as the information was known.

Ofc. Golladay returned and advised that Lawrence was free to go and we released him. I explained to him why the stop had occurred and he said he understood.

I met with Ofc. Golladay nearby to compare statements and call Austin back to gain a more accurate statement from him.

Austin advised me over the phone that he went to the location sometime around 0120 hrs after receiving a call for a ride from someone named "Jay."

When Austin arrived, a male emerged from a gate at the side of the house and started walking toward the vehicle. He described to me what Lawrence was wearing. About the same time, a female came out of the house and ran to his vehicle and jumped inside. He described what Lawrence's wife #1a was wearing. She said, "just drive" at the same time Lawrence approached the vehicle.

Lawrence told Austin to "get her the fuck out of here." #1a told Lawrence that she wanted to go with him and got out of the vehicle. Austin told me Lawrence yelled 'though his teeth', "you left this guy's fucking door open." Lawrence punched #1a in the stomach immediately after he slammed Austin's car door. Austin told me #1a collapsed to the ground and was "gasping for air" as she writhed on the ground. Lawrence picked #1a up underneath her armpits and dragged her into the house.

Austin immediately pulled around the corner and called 911. I asked him if Lawrence had punched #1a anywhere else and he said he did not. Austin was positive he had witnessed Lawrence assault #1a. He had a clear view of both of them as he sat in his vehicle.

I advised Ofc. Golladay of Austin's statement and we returned to #1d to resume the investigation. We attempted to knock on the front door however there was no answer. We walked around the corner to the back porch where we located #1a and Lawrence sitting.

Lawrence jumped out his chair, yelling at us that this was his property and we had no right to be there. He was demanding that we leave. He told us we "have to have probable cause" to come onto his property and that he didn't consent. He told us again that he has a great attorney and things were going to go badly for us. Ofc. Golladay asked #1a to speak to him away from Lawrence and she came out into the driveway. I stood between Lawrence and Ofc. Golladay. As Lawrence screamed #1a referred to him as "Jay" many times while she pleaded with him to calm down and told him that he was only making things worse.

Lawrence was standing there screaming at us. He had his fists clenched. His shoulders were rolled forward. He was becoming increasingly red in the face. Based on his behavior I believed he was preparing to fight Ofc. Golladay and myself.

He said, "I have friends at the federal level! They'll have no problem filing a fucking formal inquiry. You're both fucking done here." Lawrence continued to take intermittent steps toward us. I told him several times he needed to stay back to which he would only scream comments about his lawyer and his important friends.

Lawrence directed his attention to Ofc. Golladay and #1a. He was screaming threats to Ofc. Golladay's career at him. He was also screaming at #1a not to talk to us. he made several comments about his attorney to #1a, notably "If you talk to them you're going to deal with our attorney!" He also made statements such as, "you don't have to talk to them without counsel" and "if you talk to them you're fucking done." The entire time Lawrence's demeanor became increasingly aggressive.

I could hear most of Ofc. Golladay's interview. At one point she said she "lost her breath", describing it as like having the wind knocked out of her and provided no explanation of how. Ofc. Golladay asked her why she lost her breath if they were just arguing and she paused saying, "uhm..." and began to rationalize the statement by saying the situation had just exasperated her.

Ofc. Golladay re approached and Lawrence said, "Oh now they're going to arrest me." Lawrence was advised he was under arrest for City Assault DV. Myself and Ofc. Golladay placed Lawrence into arm control. I was holding Lawrence's left arm. Ofc. Golladay applied a handcuff to Lawrence's right wrist when he suddenly flexed the muscles in his arms and shoulders to try and break our grip. He made a sudden thrust upward with his left arm, breaking free of my grip on his wrist. He immediately began spinning his body toward me.

I was advancing on Lawrence to apply an LNR to end the confrontation. Lawrence punched me in the left jaw with a closed fist before Ofc. Golladay was able to escort him to the ground. The blow was substantial enough to knock my head backward. The impact was on the jaw line, indicating to me that the punch had come from below my face.

Once he was on the ground, Lawrence continued to physically resist. He pulled his left arm underneath his body, flexing his muscles and pulling his arm near his center to avoid me pulling the arm out from under him. He was rolling his body in an attempt to get myself and Ofc. Golladay off of him. I told Lawrence repeatedly he was under arrest and to stop resisting. I was unable to gain control of his left arm. I accessed my Taser and removed the cartridge. I turned the safety switch off and pressed it into Lawrence's back, advising him that if he did not stop resisting I would Tase him. He continued to struggle for a moment before releasing his left arm. Ofc. Golladay handcuffed Lawrence. Throughout the confrontation Officer Golladay and I advised Lawrence to stop resisting and to put his hands behind his back multiple times.

Lawrence continued to yell and scream obscenities at us to the point that several porch lights on neighboring houses came on. People were stepping outside onto their porches on nearby houses. Lawrence was yelling that he pays our salary and that it was his property. While he was in handcuffs Lawrence exclaimed to Ofc. Golladay, "Fucking piece of shit! You fucking weak motherfucker! You come at me one on one. You fucking come to me someday, one on one. I would level your ass so fucking quick."

I noticed Lawrence was bleeding from his face. Medics and a supervisor were called to the scene. Sgt. Cordis and Lt. Cowles arrived on scene and I briefed them on the situation.

Spokane Fire evaluated Lawrence and bandaged a cut to his forehead. I transported him to Deaconess Hospital to receive treatment for his injury where he was medically cleared.

I booked Lawrence into the Spokane County Jail for Assault 3rd, Assault 4th DV, Resisting Arrest, and Obstructing.

See Ofc. Golladay's report for further details.

Note: The questions above and the criteria for determining the level of risk a person faces is based on the best available research on factors associated with lethal violence by a current or former intimate partner. However, each situation may present unique factors that influence risk for lethal violence that are not captured by this screen. Although most victims who screen "positive" or "high danger" would not be expected to be killed, these victims face much higher risk than that of victims of intimate partner violence.

Conducting a Lethality Screen for First Responders Initiating the Protocol

When to Initiate a Lethality Assessment AND

- When an intimate relationship is involved;
- You believe an assault has occurred;
- You sense the potential for danger is high;
- Names of parties or location are repeat names or locations, or
- You simply believe one should be conducted.

How to Conduct a Lethality Assessment

- Use Lethality Screen for First Responders.
- After asking questions, handle information as follows:
 - Yes to Q.1, 2, or 3 = Protocol Referral
 - No to Q.1-3, but Yes to four of Q.4-11 = Protocol Referral
- "No" responses may still trigger Protocol Referral if first responder believes it appropriate.
- Ask unnumbered question to help determine whether protocol referral should be triggered.

Not Screened In or Did/Could Not Participate in Assessment

1. Advise of dangerous situation.
2. Advise to watch for signs of danger.
3. Refer to provider.
4. Provide first responder contact information.
5. Prepare report.

Screened In -

Implementation of the Protocol Referral Process

1. Advise of assessment.
2. Advise victim he/she is in danger and that people in his/her situation have been killed.
3. Advise that you need to call hotline and you would like for victim to speak with counselor.
(Remember: You are seeking the victim's permission.)
4. If victim does not want to speak with counselor, tell victim you need to speak with counselor to seek guidance and gently ask victim to reconsider.
5. If victim still does not want to speak with counselor, use same procedures as in first response.
6. If victim wants to leave, arrange for or provide transportation.
7. Assist counselor with safety planning if asked.
8. Notify domestic violence unit or supervisor.
9. Prepare report.
