Sender's Instructions: UOF - 2 TASER applications (probes), 2 officers pointed firearms (draw and direct)
Recipient's Comments/Response: I concur with Sgt. Reese's assessment of the incident in that the 2 Taser applications by Ofc. Bryer were each reasonable under their respective circumstances, and the pointing of firearms at the suspect by Ofc. Heuett and Ofc. Akins were both reasonable under the circumstances. Additionally, in reviewing the reports and body camera footage, it is apparent that the officers showed great restraint when deadly force would have been arguably justified, and that the officers communicated well with each other in taking the suspect into custody.

Sender's Instructions: UOF

Recipient's Comments/Response: Use of CEW was appropriate given the circumstances and documentation of suspect/officer interaction. As noted, use of CEW on a subject who is running may not be ideal, however the officer tried to acquire the preferred back target and initially was unable to and had to make a subsequent decision to deploy to prevent the suspect who was armed with an axe from getting to a position to possibly harm others. Use of draw and direct technique was also an appropriate use of force under the circumstances.

Incident Summary

UOF – 2 Taser applications in probe mode. Two officers pointed their firearms at the suspect (draw and direct)

Investigative Summary

On January 19, 2016 at 0955 hours, officers were dispatched to the area of Lincoln and Sprague on the report of a male with an axe. There were multiple calls and reports that a male was carrying an axe and hitting cars and mail boxes with the axe. Callers were concerned that the male may assault someone with the axe.

Officer Bryer contacted Tyronne Tummings at Lincoln and Sprague. Tyronne was carrying the axe. Officer Bryer gave Tyronne verbal commands. Tyronne continued to walk west on Sprague crossing Monroe. Officer Heuett and Officer M. Stewart arrived on scene and also began giving Tyronne verbal commands to drop the axe. Tyronne continued walking to the northwest corner of Sprague and Monroe where he turned and raised the axe in an assaultive manner. He was given more verbal commands and refused to comply. This incident was taking place downtown in a highly populated area. Tyronne was armed with a large axe and was displaying assaultive and aggressive behavior by hitting vehicles and a mailbox with the axe. Tyronne held the axe in a baseball style stance when contacted by officers. Tyronne raised the axe several times and motioned it towards officers. Tyronne was putting the public and the officers at risk of serious bodily injury or death with his actions with the axe.

Officer Heuett, M. Stewart and Bryer all had the duty to confront Tyronne and protect the public. Officer Heuett and Stewart provided lethal cover in case Tyronne advanced on them or tried to harm a citizen. Officer Bryer was designated as the less lethal officer, and armed himself with his TASER. When the opportunity came, Officer Bryer deployed the TASER in probe mode from about 15 to 20 feet away. Officer Bryer did not put in his report that he gave a warning or said index. He also did not state in his report why he did not do this. I followed up with Officer Bryer and asked him about this. Officer Bryer said that he did not say index or give a warning because Tyrone turned so quickly and ran. He said he felt he had a limited opportunity to try and deploy his TASER and bring the incident to a peaceful resolution. However, index is a preparatory command to advise other officers of the use of the TASER, as a plan had been made, the immediacy outweighed the verbal warning.

The TASER was not effective and Tyrone ran west on First ave and then south on Madison. Officer Heuett, Officer Stewart and Officer Bryer gave chase and were in the mindset that if Tyrone tried to get into a business or assault a citizen, they would use deadly force to protect the citizens and themselves. Tyrone continued to run and Officer Bryer again deployed his TASER in probe mode. This time the TASER was effective and Tyrone locked up and fell to the ground on top of the axe. Officers quickly moved in and secured the axe and took Tyrone into custody.

While policy advises against using the TASER while subjects are running, this application was reasonable and justified given the circumstances. The policy is written to protect the suspect from being injured from the fall and the inability to protect themselves as they hit the ground or other objects. Tyrone was armed with a deadly weapon and had exhibited the willingness to use the axe in an aggressive manner. He turned on the officers and raised the axe in an assaultive manner. Based on Tyrone's actions, this incident could have resulted in a justified use of deadly force. Tyrone could not be allowed to harm the public or get into a business and take hostages. Officer Bryer was able to deploy the TASER on Tyrone and potentially stop this incident from turning into a deadly force incident. There were no citizens or officers injured during this incident as a result of the application of force. Tyrone had minimal injuries from the technique while running.

I tried to interview Tyrone about this incident and he refused to talk to me. I also checked the area and did not find any witnesses that observed the use of force.

Officer Bryer was justified in using the TASER in probe mode for both applications of force. He was within policy and state and federal law and this was a reasonable use of force. Officer Heuett and Officer Stewart were both justified in pointing their firearms at the suspect during this incident. They were within policy, state and federal law and it was reasonable considering the circumstances. Officer showed great restraint and excellent decision making to try and use less lethal means to take Tyrone into custody rather than being forced to use deadly force. Officers also used excellent tactics to have two officers deploy lethal cover while the third officer used a less lethal option.

NARRATIVE

On 01/19/16 at 10:10 hours, I responded to the area of Sprague and Lincoln to assist other officer's on a person with a weapon call. Witnesses in the area were calling and stating a black male was walking down the street carrying an axe. The suspect was observed striking a car and a mailbox in the same area with the axe he was carrying. The male was described wearing a blue hoodie, blue pants, and carrying a yellow handle pix axe.

Ofc. Bryer was the first officer to locate the suspect on Sprague just west of Lincoln St. The male later identified as Tyronne Tummings. See Ofc. Bryer's report for additional information regarding the contact and the use of force.

Ofc. Heuett and Ofc. Stewart also responded and assisted with taking Tummings into custody. See their reports for additional information.

Upon arrival at 1st and Madison, I contacted a witness, Charles Athey, and he stated the following to me:

He currently works at the Davenport Tower as a security officer. He was called down to the parking garage for male carrying an axe around. When he entered the garage, he observed Tummings carrying the axe. Tummings saw him and started to walk towards him. He started to back up and thought to himself, this guy's got an axe, nothing I can do. Tummings never made any statements toward him and never threatened him with the axe. Tummings then turned and walked out of the parking garage. He advised another security officer Mill's about Tummings. He checked around for any damaged vehicles and nothing was located. Mill's and he went outside to try and find the subject again. He located Tummings walking W/B on Sprague still carrying the axe. At that time, police arrived and were contacting Tummings.

He did not have a good visual on the contact, but heard a "pop" noise. He thought it was the taser being deployed. Then Tummings took off running and police chased him.

I spoke to Donovan Mills, who works as security officer for the Davenport, and he stated the following:

He was working when his partner Athey radioed him and advised him about Tummings's in the Davenport Tower. He went outside onto 1st and located Tummings's walking W/B about Monroe on the South side of the street. As Tummings's continued walking, he swung the axe from side to side. There were about two to three pedestrians who were walking E/B on 1st and moved out of the way when they saw Tummings. He headed back into the Davenport and when he returned, Tummings's was now walking E/B on first on the North side of the street. Tummings's walked to Lincoln St. and then headed N/B on Lincoln. He cut through the hotel and observed Tummings's now walking W/B on Sprague from Lincoln. At that point police arrived and were making contact with Tummings. He saw Tummings's raise up the axe with both hands on it in an aggressive manner and backup from officers. He observed Tummings's turn in an attempt to run away. He saw Ofc. Bryer deploy his taser in probe mode and assumed it failed because the male ran W/B on Sprague. He was unable to keep up with officers and did not see anything that happened at 1st and Madison when officers took Tummings into custody.

Ofc. Lyon's was on scene and collected the axe and taser probes as evidence. He took the items and placed them onto property as evidence. Cpl. Adams also responded and took photos of the axe and injuries sustained to Tummings during the incident.

Ofc. O'Brien was on scene also. He interviewed a witness and victim of the vehicle damage. The damage was estimated to exceed $750, due to my training and experience. See Ofc. O'Brien's report for additional information.

Ofc. Prim spoke with Larry Dunn who spoke about seeing Tummings striking a mailbox with the axe around 1st and Monroe. See Ofc. Prim's report for additional information. I went and located a US Postal Service mailbox at 919 W 1st Ave. The mail box had a small 1in long dent on it. The damaged appeared fresh and recent. The damage appeared consistent with being hit by a pick axe. Cpl. Adams responded and took photos of the damage.

I located the victim at Spokane Falls and Main. I spoke with [REDACTED] #1a and he stated the following to me:

He was works for Heinal Tree care and was doing working in front of Pyrotek located at 705 W 1st Ave. When he came around his work truck, he noticed a black male, around 6'1", large frame, beard stubble, wearing a blue jacket, reddish shoes and hat. This matched the description of Tummings and what he was wearing. As he attempted to speak with Tummings, he picked up the pick axe from the ground. He told Tummings, "sir that is our tool." Tummings turned around and faced him. Tummings held the pick axe in a horizontal manner with both hands on it. Tummings stated, "Get back mother fucker." He was afraid because he was holding a pick axe. He does not know the male and didn't know his intentions. He also stated that Tummings had the look of "this is my tool, get away" and he was holding the pick axe. He backed up from Tummings and then Tummings turned and started to walk W/B on 1st Ave. He then went over and told him foreman, Trevor Jensen.

I spoke with Trevor Jensen and he stated the following to me:

He was working with [REDACTED] #1a at 1st Ave and Wall [REDACTED] #1a came around the corner and told him about this black male who just stole their pick axe. He never saw the encounter between the male and #1a He observed the male walking W/B on 1st Ave. He described the male as 6'0", big guy, around 200lbs. The male was wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt. He valued the axe around $75.00

I spoke with Scott Perkins with the US Postal Service via the phone. Perkins stated they have to replace the mailbox and it would cost about $500.00.

Based on the dollar amount to the damaged vehicle, I had probable cause for malicious mischief 2nd degree. Tummings was armed with a deadly weapon and used the fear of injury from the pick axe to steal the pick axe from the work crew. Based on that, I had probable cause for robbery 1st degree. Based on the damage to the US Postal box, I had probable cause for malicious mischief 3rd degree.

Based on the reports from Ofc. Bryer, Ofc. Heuett, and Ofc. M Stewart, Tummings was charged with 3 counts of weapons capable of producing bodily harm. See their reports for additional information.

Tummings was also charged with obstructing. See Ofc. Bryer's report for additional information.

I CERTIFY (OR DECLARE) UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.

On 01/19/2016, at 1008 hours, I had recently left jail and I heard over the patrol radio that Sergeant Yamada was en route to a person with a weapon call. The call stated that a was a male walking on Monroe St carrying an axe. The caller also stated that the male hit a mailbox with the axe and then yelled at him.

Whilst I was at jail I had heard another call about the male with an axe who was walking around downtown. Because of the numerous calls on this subject, and that Sergeant Yamada was heading there, I put myself en route and started to head that way. The last update was that the male was walking east on 1st Ave from Madison St.

I was driving west on Sprague Ave to get to the last known location and was passing the Davenport Hotel, between Post and Lincoln St. Two security personnel from the Davenport came running out into the road to flag me down. I stopped and they pointed to the north side of Sprague Ave, just west of Lincoln St. There was a black male, later identified as Tyronne Tummings, who was walking west. He was wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt and blue pants. He also had a yellow handled axe draped across both shoulders.

1000 hours on a Tuesday morning in the downtown area of Spokane is a busy time. This was also the first day after a federal holiday and so it was also a lot of workers Monday. Due to this there was a lot of vehicular and pedestrian traffic in the area where Tyronne was walking. All of the businesses in the area were open and this included the Davenport Hotels, numerous bars and coffee shops, and other restaurants and shops along Sprague Ave. This made Tyronne's actions even more dangerous to other people in the area.

I left the security personnel and crossed Sprague Ave to contact Tyronne. As he continued to walk, I observed a pedestrian pointing towards Tyronne with a concerned look on his face.

When Tyronne was about half way along Sprague Ave between Lincoln and Monroe, I was able to catch up to him. I exited my patrol vehicle and immediately observed the axe that Tyronne was carrying. After I yelled at him to stop and he realized that it was the police, Tyronne took the axe off his shoulders and held it with both hands in front of him. He was holding it two handed close to the base of the handle, with the head of the axe of to his right side.

As soon as we got to Monroe St, Officer Huett and Stewart pulled up in a patrol vehicle on Monroe at Sprague Ave. As they exited the patrol vehicle, I could hear them ordering Tyronne to the ground and to drop the axe. Tyronne continued to walk past the front of their patrol car and did not comply with any of their commands.

As Tyronne was nearing the west side of Monroe St, he started to run, still carrying the axe in his hand. When Tyronne was about 15 feet past Monroe St, he suddenly stopped, turned around and raised the axe towards us. Tyronne took a stance which would be similar to one you would take when swinging an axe. He was facing us with his body bladed, so that his left foot was towards us and his right foot was behind him, spreading his weight evenly spread. He had the axe raised over his right should and was in a position to swing it at us. He could easily have thrown the axe at us from the position he was in.

Tyronne kept th axe raised above his right shoulder and started to walk backwards. He kept his gaze on us except when he would turn around to see where he was walking. It appeared clear that if we had got closer to Tyronne he would have used the axe against us.

I heard Officer Huett advise that he and Stewart had lethal cover, meaning that they had their handguns drawn and could use deadly force if the situation determined it to be necessary. I therefore utilized my department issued Taser X2 in the hope we could resolve the case without the use of deadly force.

Tyronne continued to walk backwards until he turned and started to walkaway, with his back to us. I began to get closer and was going to use the Taser on his back. However, as I advanced and got closer, Tyronne stopped again and turned to face me. He once again raised the axe and held his ground, not moving forwards or backwards.

I told Tyronne to drop the axe and to show me his hands, but he continued not to comply with lawful orders. I also could hear Officer Huett giving verbal commands which Tyronne was also ignoring.

Due to the preferred targets for a Taser probe deployment being the back, I wanted to wait until Tyronne turned his back once again. My hope was to deploy the Taser in probe mode and hit Tyronne in the back with them. However, he continued to walk backwards and only presented me with his front.

Tyronne then suddenly turned and started to run, crossing Sprague Ave to the south.

It was at this point that I deployed my department issued Taser in probe mode, hopefully hitting the mid back of the suspect, for the following reasons:

Crime:

- 3 Counts of RCW 9.41.270 Weapons Apparently Capable of Producing Bodily Harm
- SMC 10.12.025 Malicious Mischief
- SMC 10.07.032 Obstructing a Law Enforcement Office.

Threat Considerations:

- Armed with an axe and has displayed it in a threatening manner and used it to damage property
- Downtown Spokane on a Tuesday midmorning, it is busy with both vehicular and pedestrian traffic
- The suspect was a large, young male, and would easily have been able to inflict serious injury with the axe he was carrying

Resistance:

- The suspect had been told numerous times to stop, to drop the axe, and to show his hands
- At no time did the suspect comply with any of the lawful commands given

When Tyronne turned to start running away again, I deployed the Taser in probe mode because his back was now facing me. The Taser deployed as intended but it did not make a good connection. The Taser was activated foone full, five second application. I am not sure if a probe missed Tyronne or hit clothing and prevented arcing, but it did not have the desired affect. Tyronne continued running and once across Sprague Ave he ran west, on the south side of the street.

Tyronne continued to run west and then cut through the parking lot on the south east side of Sprague and Madison. Tyronne ran across Madison St to the west side and then headed south. The Taser X2 is equipped with two cartridges simultaneously and they can be switched from one to the other. Once the switch was done, I was close enough to again deploy my department issued Taser in probe mode.

This time both probes made good contact and had the desired affect on Tyronne. Due to the crimes and the circumstances, and the fact that one Taser deployment had failed, I decided that the risks of Tyronne getting away out weighed the risks of using the Taser in probe mode on a running suspect.

As Tyronne was running when the probes made contact and induced the desired affect, Tyronne fell to the ground and was unable to soften his fall with his hands. The Taser was activated foone full, five second application. Tyronne fell forward and landed on his front, with the axe under him. During the fall Tyronne also hit his head on the ground, causing a laceration to his right eyebrow.

We immediately handcuffed Tyronne and moved the axe away from his reach. I then advised Radio over the air that I had deployed my Taser, that we would need medics for the laceration to Tyronne's head, and to start a corporal and supervisor.

Officers were able to apply a dressing to Tyronne's laceration to try and stop the flow of blood until medics could arrive. Once the fire department was on scene, they took over first aid of Tyronne.

It was at this point that I observed one of the probes from my Taser had struck Tyronne on the left cheek of his face. I am not sure which Taser application caused this but would think it was the first. The fire department removed the three probes that were still attached to Tyronne. One was on the left sleeve of his sweatshirt, which had not made contact with his skin, another was just above his belt on the lower left side of his back, and the third was in the cheek. The fourth probe was found in the middle of Sprague Ave where the first application took place.

Once medics arrived he was transported to Deaconess ER via ambulance to be treated. I followed the ambulance and then initially stayed with Tyronne. Tyronne refused any medical attention at the hospital for about an hour, even though doctors were telling him he needed stitches and scans. When I was relieved he had just allowed them to clean the laceration.

On 011916 at 0955 hours, I was driving to the public safety building, in a marked patrol vehicle. I heard dispatch advise of person with a weapon call in the area of Madison and 1st. They advised that and employee with Bond Adjustment Company, later identified as Larry Dunn, called and said that a male was walking carrying an axe. The suspect hit a mailbox with the axe and yelled at the complainant. He left walking northbound on a street just west of Monroe. The suspect was described as a black male or Hispanic male, mid 20's, wearing a blue hoodie and dark pants.

Another male at about 1004 hours, later identified as Gordon Harvey, called 911 to report that he observed a male walking east bound on 1st near Madison, carrying an axe and hit a car with the axe. The victim vehicle was just west of Jefferson on 1st. He described the male as a black male, blue hoodie, blue pants, carrying a yellow handled pick axe.

I then heard Officer Bryer, check out with the male in the area of Sprague, just east of Lincoln and that he was running.

It should be noted that on 011715 at about 1844 hours (160019622) Officer Stewart and I responded to the area of 211 S. Division (Fairfield Inn), reference a male banging his head on the front window. The suspect was described as a black male 20-30's, 5-10 black jacket and jeans, carrying a lot of luggage.

We then received a call at 120 W. 3rd, Days Inn (160019638), reference a male that was refusing to leave. He was described as black male, 6-04 medium build, wearing a black jacket and gray sweats.

We contacted the male at the intersection of Washington and 2nd. He fit the description of both calls and had a lot of luggage with him. When I exited my patrol vehicle he immediately advised that he wanted to go to jail. He took an aggressive stance and back up against the wall. His feet were shoulder width apart and he started to take off his backpack that had a strap going across his chest from his shoulder to his waistband. I immediately De-escalated him and told him that we did not want to fight with him and that he just wanted to get him to a warming center for the evening. He immediately change his stance and attitude and agreed to go to a warming center. We contacted car 50 for a transport to the Salvation Army warming center on East Indiana.

When I heard Officer Bryer advise that he was checking out with the male and that he was running from him I activated my overhead lights and started running code to his location. I started from Monroe and Spokane Falls Blvd and continued up to Sprague. I was concerned for the safety of Officer Bryer and knew that he was alone with the suspect, who was armed with an axe.

The crimes known at the time that the suspect has committed or suspected of was felony malicious mischief, intimidation with a weapon and obstructing a law enforcement Officer.

The suspect, later identified as Tyronne Tummings, posed an immediate threat to Officers, and citizens in the Downtown Core, while armed with an axe. He also was attempting to evade arrest by running away from Officer's, who gave several verbal commands to get on the ground and put down the axe. It should also be noted that it was a Tuesday morning in the Downtown Core of Spokane and there is usually several people walking to and from work and there are several local business open during the hours of 0800 to 1700 hours. The Davenport Hotel is within a block of the location that houses several guests everyday. The Fox Theater is also across the street from Sprague and Monroe along with the Knitting Factory that has employees working.

It should be noted that I was in full jumpsuit uniform with a Spokane Police badge and patches, wearing a duty belt. I also was driving a fully marked black and white Ford police vehicle that had a light bar on top.

I pulled up to the intersection of Monroe and Sprague and was facing south on Monroe. I was in the second lane from the east curb and was surprised by the male. He was 6-03, 265 pounds and was wearing a hooded sweatshirt that was covering his waistband. His pants were baggy and appeared that they had some belongings in them. I observed Tyronne walking at a quick pace, west on Sprague on the northeast corner of the intersection. He was holding a large 36" Pulaski Fire Axe, with his left hand towards the handle of the axe and his right hand, near the blade of the axe. The axe was across his body with the handle by his waistband and the steel blade portion over his right shoulder. The axe was held in a manner that is consistent with getting ready to chop wood, and use the steel blade at a right angle for its purpose of cutting wood. He had a thousand yard stare as he looked directly at me and my patrol vehicle (#300) that is a black and white Ford Interceptor, that is equipped with a light bar on top. He was not blinking and had his eyes wide open as he took a step towards me. He was about ten feet from my drivers side door and I thought that he was going to hit my window with the axe or assault me with it through my window or as I exited my patrol vehicle. I was immediately concerned for my safety and believed that Tyronne was an imminent threat of serious bodily to myself, other Officer's and the downtown community.

I quickly exited my patrol vehicle and pulled out my handgun and began giving Tyronne commands to drop the ax and to get on the ground. He continued to walk across the intersection and made no attempt to listen to my commands. I could hear Officer Stewart giving him commands to drop the axe and he refused to follow the simple commands. Tyronne continued walking quickly to the west and started running when he got to the northwest corner. I was unable to see directly down Sprague to the west because of the angle that I had as I used my patrol vehicle for cover. I was concerned that Tyronne was running towards possible victims who were walking on the north side of Sprague. I started to chase after him, giving him several commands to show us his hands and to get on the ground. As I began to run after Tyronne, I again believed that he was an imminent threat of serious bodily injury to Officer's, and citizens in the area. I also was concerned that he was going to make it into a business in the area and take possible hostages or assault someone with the axe, which could result in serious bodily injury or death.

Tyronne ran for about five feet and quickly turned around faced all three of us. (Bryer, Stewart, Heuett) He was in a bladed stance, with his feet shoulder width apart, making no facial expressions, with a thousand yard stare. He did not say anything to us and was again holding the axe with the handle down by his left waistband and the steel axe over his right shoulder. He began to raise it up higher over his right shoulder and made two separate chopping motions, bringing the steel axe towards us. It was a tense and rapidly evolving incident and I'm not sure if I brought my handgun from a low ready position up to on target. I told Officer Bryer to apply a taser to the male and that I would stay as lethal cover.

Tyronne turned and ran to southwest across all lanes of travel on Sprague. As he was running, he was pulling at a taser probe on the left side, just above his left buttocks. He pulled out the probe and threw it down on Sprague. He continued to run at a quick pace and was holding the axe with both hands in front of him. I did not want to get too close to him, in case he quickly stopped and turned around. I felt that he would be able to hit me with the axe before I could safely move away from him or use force to stop him from assaulting one of us. I was also concerned that he was going to run into a local business and advised the two other units that we could not allow him to get into an apartment complex that was close to the west and local business to the west, to include KHQ that has several employees throughout the day.

Officer Bryer applied another taser application to Tyronne and he immediately tensed up and dropped to the ground on the sidewalk on the northwest corner of 1st and Madison. He landed on top of the axe with the steel blade sticking out to the east of his body. Both hands were concealed under his body, near his waistband, which is a common place for suspect to conceal weapons. I quickly stepped on the axe, just below the steel axe and placed my hands against the small of his back to control him from not rolling over. I assisted in getting his right arm out from under his body and placed him in handcuffs. I began to talk to Tyronne and to see if he was injured or needed medical attention. I observed a laceration above his right eye and asked Officer Lyons if he had a compression gauze bandage. I gave it to Officer Stewart and had him apply pressure to the laceration to stop it from bleeding. I continued to talk to Tyronne to assist in De-escalating him and to keep him from going into shock, before medical attention could get on scene.

NARRATIVE

On 1/19/16 at approximately 1005 hrs. Officer Heuett and I were dispatched to a person with a weapon call in the area of Sprague/Monroe. It was reported a male was walking carrying an ax downtown. The male was described as being a black male, wearing a blue hoodie, dark colored pants, carrying an yellow handled ax. Officer Heuett advised we would be enroute from North Monroe St near W Mallon Ave.

We came upon the intersection of W Sprague and S Monroe St. As soon as we pulled up I noticed the male matching the description carrying a yellow handled ax. I immediately recognized this male as Tyrone Tummings. (I dealt with Tummings 2 days ago on 2 different complaints, see later in report for more information). Tummings was approximately 10 feet from our vehicle with the ax raised above his waist. Officer Heuett and I immediately exited our vehicle. Officer Heuett was in the driver's seat and was closest to Tummings. As I stepped out from the passenger side of the vehicle, I overheard Officer Bryer who was to the east of Tummings, yelling commands at him. I looked at Tummings and saw him staring with his eyes wide at me. It appeared Tummings had a menacing face and was giving us the 1000 yard stare, the entire time having the ax raised at waist level. Tummings was hunching his shoulders over almost as if he was challenging us. He was not responding to commands given to him. At this point Tummings was approximately 10-15 feet from me near the front right corner of my patrol vehicle slowly walking westbound. I stepped back as Tummings started walking past our patrol vehicle. I immediately drew my pistol from my holster and pointed in at Tummings.

The crimes known to me that the suspect had committed or is suspected of committed is felony malicious mischief, intimidation with a weapon on officers, and obstruction. Tummings had been walking through downtown Spokane hitting parked cars and federal property (mailboxes) with his ax in his possession causing several hundred dollars worth of damage.

Tummings posed an immediate threat to myself, other officers on scene, and innocent bystanders by the following actions. Tummings was walking through downtown Spokane with an ax in his hands. Tummings was walking around town at 1000 hrs. on a weekday. This time around town is usually fairly populated with people traveling to and from work on foot and in vehicles. There are multiple businesses in the area of where Tummings was walking such as the FOX Theater, The Davenport Hotel, and The KHQ News Station building, all of which were highly populated buildings. Tummings had already shown he was capable of causing significant damage with the ax he had by damaging property with it. When I contacted Tummings, he had a blank stare on his face. He was not complying with our commands which were given multiple times. Tummings made several advancements towards myself and other officers on scene raising the ax multiple times and threatening us. Tummings was attempting to evade arrest when he ignored the multiple commands given to drop the ax, and took off running away from the officers. It was later determined by asking Tummings at the hospital he stood 6'3" tall, and weighed in at 265 lbs. Tummings outweighed me by close to 80 lbs. and was almost half a foot taller than me.

Tummings started to move very quickly westbound on W Sprague Ave still carrying the ax walking away from us. I gave Tummings commands using his first name of Tyrone, however Tummings did not respond. Tummings continued to walk westbound on W Sprague. We were following Tummings at a distance of around 15 feet. Tummings immediately turned around and raised the ax above his waist to nearly his chest level. Tummings appeared as if he would try and use the ax against us. Tummings took a half a step towards us with the ax raised as if he would charge at us. Tummings made a significant effort to fake like he would swing the ax and to challenge us. My pistol was already in the low ready position. I again pointed in at Tummings.

The crimes known to me that the suspect had committed or is suspected of committed is felony malicious mischief, intimidation with a weapon on officers, and obstruction.

Tummings posed an immediate threat to myself, other officers on scene, and innocent bystanders by the following actions. Tummings was walking through downtown Spokane with an ax in his hands. Tummings was walking around town at 1000 hrs. on a weekday. This time around town is usually fairly populated with people traveling to and from work on foot and in vehicles. There are multiple businesses in the area of where Tummings was walking such as the FOX Theater, The Davenport Hotel, and The KHQ News Station building, all of which were highly populated buildings. He was not complying with our commands which were given multiple times. Tummings made several advancements towards myself and other officers on scene raising the ax multiple times. Tummings made it clear he did was not wanting to comply with our commands. Tummings was attempting to evade arrest when he ignored the multiple commands given to drop the ax, and took off running away from the officers.

Tummings turned around and started to run westbound on W Sprague Ave. Tummings crossed the street to the south. Officer Bryer had his TASER out and discharged it on Tummings. The TASER hit was ineffective and I could see Tummings continue to run. I could see Tummings remove one of the TASER probes with his left hand. This probe was in his back area. Tummings was wearing a very baggy sweatshirt, which led to the TASER probe not working.

I overheard Officer Heuett yell at both Officer Bryer and I, we couldn't let Tummings get into any businesses to harm any people. I continued to give verbal commands to Tummings calling out his first name, and was also yelling for him to stop running and to drop the ax. It appeared Tummings was running almost in a full sprint to try and get away from us. Tummings began to run southbound on S Madison St continuing with the ax in his hand. I heard Officer Heuett yell again to not let Tummings reach the inside of any businesses. Tummings was approaching W 1st Ave. I noticed there was more traffic on that street than on W Sprague. Officer Bryer had another TASER cartridge for his TASER. Tummings was now on the westbound sidewalk on S Madison St nearing the intersection of S Madison St and W 1st Ave. Tummings was still running away from us disregarding the multiple commands we gave him. He continued to carry the ax. Officer Bryer was able to connect with both probes to use his TASER a second time, this time it was effective. Tummings stopped mid stride and fell face first into the concrete sidewalk. Tummings still had the ax underneath his body with both hands on it. I saw Officer Heuett step on the ax securing it to the ground. I holstered my pistol and immediately started to take control of Tummings' arms. I kneeled down on the upper part of Tummings' back and started to grab the ax out from under him. I was able to pull the ax out from underneath him. Once both Tummings' arms were out from underneath him, I secured both his wrists in handcuffs behind his back.

I was given a bandage by Officer Heuett to place pressure on Tummings right eye. Tummings was bleeding from fairly large gash over his right eyebrow from falling on the concrete after being tazed.

A supervisor, corporal, and ambulance were called to the scene. The ambulance arrived and wrapped Tummings' head up with gauze. The ambulance crew placed Tummings on a stretcher, then led him into the ambulance. Sgt Reese advised me to ride in the back of the ambulance with the crew.

I jumped in the back of the ambulance. I advised the ambulance crew Tummings was under arrest. I rode with the ambulance to Deaconess Hospital where Tummings was placed in a room. Officer Bryer and I removed the handcuffs from Tummings wrists. We loosened them and secured his left wrist to the hospital bed. His right hand was not handcuffed.

PREVIOUS HISTORY:

I had contacted Tummings two days ago on 1/17/16. The security guard at the Intermodal bus station advised Tummings had been trespassed, but was currently sitting in the Intermodal. When contacted, Tummings advised he didn't have anywhere to go and was homeless. We advised Tummings of shelters located in the city. He stated he understood, and left the Intermodal on foot with his luggage.

An hour later, there was a reported a black male was banging his head on the windows, and bothering guests of the Fairbridge Inn on S Division. Officer Heuett and I arrived at the location. The front desk worker advised the male took off on foot in an unknown direction.

After checking the area for a few minutes, dispatch advised there was a black male causing a disturbance at the Days Inn in downtown Spokane. We believed this to be the same male. Officer Heuett and I arrived at the Days Inn and contacted the front desk worker. She advised Officer Heuett and I the male left walking westbound on an unknown street. She described the male as being a black male, around 6 feet tall, carrying a few suitcases.

Officer Heuett and I located Tummings near the intersection of W 2nd Ave/S Washington St. I advised him he was trespassed from both the Days Inn and the Fairbridge Inn. I again advised Tummings we could have him go to a shelter for the night. Tummings agreed he would go to one of the shelters for the night.

Car 50 was called to transport Tummings to one of the shelters. While we were waiting for car 50 to arrive, I attempted to talk to Tummings. I asked Tummings if he played any sports, had any family, where he was from etc. Tummings advised me he didn't play any sports, have any family, and didn't know where he was from. Tummings was polite, yet vague in his responses. It appeared as if Tummings might have some mental issues. Tummings would often at times stare at a fixed point with a blank face, or not answer questions I asked him.

At 1647 hrs. I went to the hospital to relieve Officer Bryer who was waiting with Tummings in one of the rooms. I asked Tummings what his injuries were. Tummings had an unknown amount of facial fractures to the right side of his face.

Tummings' right eye was completely swollen shut, and was black and blue in color. Tumblings advised me he had received 17 stitches to the area above his right eye.

It was made known to me by hospital staff, Tumblings would be transported to Sacred Heart Medical Center to be treated. He would most likely need surgery to his eye.

Officer Heuett contacted Sgt Reese and advised him of the current situation. Sgt Reese advised us we could release him from custody since the would most likely be admitting him.

Officer Heuett contacted Sacred Heart ER Security and updated them with the information.

We cleared the hospital.

On 011916 at approximately 1010 hours, I responded to the area of 1st / Madison to assist Officer's in foot pursuit of a suspect armed with an axe that had been hitting cars with the axe.

Upon arrival I could see that the suspect, who was later identified as Tyrone Tummings, was lying face down on the sidewalk, and appeared to have been tasered. I could see that Tyrone was lying on top of a large axe with a yellow handle. As I approached, Officer's pulled the axe out from under Tyrone, and I moved it out of the way. I assisted in pulled Tyrone's arms out from under his body and assisted in handcuffing him.

Once Tyrone was in handcuffs, I assisted in searching him. Tyrone had a large cut above his right eye. I accessed a trauma bandage from my uniform and gave it to Ofc. Heuett to help control Tyrone's bleeding.

I assisted in controlling Tyrone's legs until medics arrived.

I collected 2 taser cartridge's and the taser probes from Ofc. Bryer.

Cpl. Adams responded and took photographs of the axe and the scene. I collected the axe as evidence.

I responded to 1st / Washington and contacted Adam J. Daubert who told me the following: He was in a left at 1st / Washington working when he was a male, that was either a light skinned

The male was carrying either a satchel or purse. The male threw something at a female standing on the north side walk of 1st and hit her in the shoulders or back of the head. Adam advised that there was no confrontation that led up to th assault. They yelled at the male, but he just continued to walk west bound.

I responded to Police Property and placed the 2 taser cartridges, the taser probes, and the axe on as evidence.

NARRATIVE

I responded to the area of 1st Ave. and Monroe St. to a report of a person with a weapon. I arrived on scene and saw officers had taken a large black male into custody. The male was wearing blue pants and a blue hooded sweatshirt. On the sidewalk near the male was a yellow handle pick axe type tool.

The male was identified as Tyrone Tummings.

A citizen, Ivan Brooks, waved at me to get my attention.

I contacted Brooks on the south side of 1st Ave.

Brooks told me the male we had detained he believes is the same subject he saw damage a vehicle with an axe. Brooks told me he was walking east on 1st Ave. near Adams when he saw Tummings hit the hood of a white vehicle parked on the street.

The vehicle was parked in front of 1229 W. 1st Ave. Brooks said he was about in the middle of the intersection when he watched Tummings strike vehicle.

Brooks said Tummings behavior was frightening enough to him that he did not want to get closer. Brooks saw Tummings walk east. When Brooks got to the are of Jefferson St. he asked an Avista employee to call 911.

Brooks walked me back to 1229 W. 1st Ave. and showed me the damage vehicle.

I saw a significant dent in the hood on a 2011 Infiniti G37 with WA license ASH1082. The damage was just above the "clear bra" installed on the hood of the car.

I contacted the vehicle owner, #1a, who was visibly upset and shaken by the incident.

#1a could not provide a damage estimate at this time.

I gave #1a a crime victim information card and requested a corporal for a photograph.

I contacted Gordon Harvey who works for Avista.

Harvey said he saw Tummings walk past him while carrying a pick axe. Harvey said Brooks approached him and asked him to call 911.

NARRATIVE

On 01/19/2015 at 1010, I was dispatched to a Person with a Weapon call at 1st/Monroe. I was working in a two-officer patrol with Officer Akins. Upon arrival, I called witness Larry Dunn. Dunn told me the following:

He was riding his bicycle east bound on 1st Ave, near the Fox Theatre. He saw a BM on the south side of the street, on the sidewalk. The male was described as wearing a blue hoodie and dark pants. The male was holding an axe and struck a mailbox with the blunt end of the axe. He added that the male, "looked dangerous". The male then put the axe on his shoulder and glared at him. The male caused him to leave the area very quickly and he felt afraid. He added that he appeared to have "meth madness".

I observed a blue U.S. Postal mail box on the south side of 1st Ave, directly across from the Knitting Factory. I saw a small dent on the mailbox, which was new damage and had some scraping/dirt. I determined that this was the mailbox the suspect had struck with the axe. Refer to Officer Akins' report for further information.

It should be noted that I was unable to use my body camera, which was at the downtown precinct. This incident occurred at the very start of my shift and I was unable to pick up the body camera because of the rapid evolving situation/foot pursuit.

On the above stated date and time, I responded to 705 W. 1st Avenue on a suspicious circumstances call.

This took me to the offices of Pyrotek Incorporated. There I contacted Amanda K. Arriondo.

According to Amanda, a purse was left on her vehicle in front of her offices on West 1st. This appeared odd not only to the passerby but the fellow employees who knew her vehicle and that she wouldn't leave anything open on top especially a purse.

The purse was taken inside and presented to Amanda. Amanda confirmed the purse did not belong to her. A quick check of its contents showed all paperwork pointing to an owner by the name of Tyrone Tumblings with an address in our Urbana Illinois. It's believed this purse as part of an earlier foot chase with officers in downtown Spokane (see #16-021461).

The purse was taken to property and placed on the book as evidence. I gave the reporting party a crime victim card with report number.
