INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Officers responded to a Domestic Violence call between roommates. Officers spoke to the individuals on scene and determined they had probable cause to arrest the suspect for Assault-Domestic Violence. They advised the suspect that he was under arrest and began handcuffing him. The suspect became assaultive by punching and kicking the officers. One officer deployed a Level II Lateral Neck Restraint with the intent of rendering the suspect unconscious, but he was not successful. The suspect fought for nearly three minutes before officers were able to gain control of him and place him into handcuffs. He was booked for Assault and Resisting Arrest.
