INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Officers were called to an unlawful camping call. Officers contacted the two males. One suspect was advised he was under arrest for several warrants. As officers prepared to handcuff the suspect, he attempted to break free and escape on foot. Officers took the resistive suspect to the ground. The suspect continued to try and resist by kicking and thrashing but was handcuffed and taken into custody by both officers. In the process of arrest, the suspect sustained minor abrasions. He complained of pain to his right lower rib cage. Spokane Fire medics responded and evaluated the male. They cleared him for booking. The suspect was booked for his warrants and Resisting Arrest.
