INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

Officers responded to a Shooting call. The caller reported that a male was inside the residence with a gunshot wound and the suspect was still standing outside the location. Two of the officers on scene encountered the suspect outside the location. The suspect refused orders to show his hands. Both officers intentionally pointed their firearms at the suspect for about ten seconds until he was on the ground with both hands visible. Officers then took the suspect into custody. The suspect was unharmed. He was booked into jail for 1st Degree Murder. The victim was transported to the hospital.
