INCIDENT SYNOPSIS

An officer located a suspect with felony and misdemeanor warrants. The officer contacted the suspect and advised he was under arrest, and the suspect fled from the officer. When the officer caught up to him, the suspect became assaultive, striking the officer in the chest. He fled again. The officer deployed his TASER and the suspect fell on the concrete. The suspect received a laceration to his chin and fractured nose as a result. The officer immediately provided medical aid to the suspect. Medics came to the scene to evaluate him. The suspect was taken to the hospital for treatment before being booked into jail for 3rd Degree Assault, Resisting Arrest, and his warrants.
