

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: October 29, 2020
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Tuter, I am very proud and honored to present you and your Chaplains with the Chief's Citation Award. You and your chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C. N. Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Kevin Piatt
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Piatt, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C N Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Todd LaRoche
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain LaRoche, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C N Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Denny Klaja
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Klaja, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Craig N. Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Tim Wheatley
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Wheatley, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C. N. Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Chinelle Flood
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Flood, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C N Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Pat Hogan
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Hogan, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Craig N. Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Craig Swanby
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Swanby, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Craig N. Meidl'.

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police

Letter of Award Chief's Citation Award

To: Chaplain Ray Flood
From: Craig N. Meidl - Chief of Police
Date: February 10, 2021
Re: Chief's Citation Award

Sergeant Dave Daddato nominated Chaplain Mickey Tuter and the SPD Chaplaincy for the Chief's Citation Award. In his nomination, Sgt. Daddato stated:

"Our chaplains have been working diligently and tirelessly through the protests. They kept officers hydrated and well fed during these tense and unknown times for law enforcement. On Sunday June 7th, Chaplain Tuter was given the extraordinary task of feeding approximately 500 Officers and National Guard personnel snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner. One National Guard Unit was deployed in the field just as food arrived at the Forward Command Post. These Guard Personnel were unable to get food or drinks. The Chaplains personally served lunch and dinner to each Officer or Guard personnel at the Forward Command Post thanking them for their service. After feeding the personnel at the Forward Command Post and Command Post, Chaplain Tuter personally took food and drinks in a truck to the deployed Guard personnel.

A WSP Supervisor, who a week earlier was working the Seattle Protests, wanted to personally thank Spokane PD for the food and drinks provided them. He advised that during the Seattle protests there was no transportation, food or drinks provided for them. They had to walk 5 miles to the protest area on foot and bring their own food and drinks on their person. The Spokane Police Department was given accolades in large part due to Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains.

On June 14th, Chaplain Tuter was again tasked with supplying snacks, drinks, lunch and dinner for the Officers assigned to the protest. He delivered to both the Command Post and Forward Command Post, which were located at two different locations in the City. Not one officer went hungry or thirsty during this event.

All of Chaplain Tuter's hours past his 40 he has donated, not receiving any monetary compensation. Chaplain Tuter and his Chaplains have been drained emotionally and physically while donating more of their time which is more than usual. With all these stressors occurring, Chaplain Tuter and his fellow Chaplains have always been humble, caring and positive when serving our officers, officers from all over the west side of this state and Idaho, as well as with the National Guard.

I have heard from numerous Spokane Officers how meaningful and important the Chaplains have been to them on countless occasions during these protests both emotionally and physically. All of this is being done while still doing their daily job assignments assisting officers and detectives on DOA calls, regular call outs, and counselling for officers and their families."

Chaplain Flood, I am very proud and honored to present you with the Chief's Citation Award. The SPD chaplains will be recognized and your unit will be presented with a plaque at our next annual awards ceremony.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Craig N. Meidl".

Craig N. Meidl
Chief of Police