Dear Ms. Black:

This letter is to address elementary school capacity questions on the Northwest side of the Spokane Public Schools district. The schools that we assessed are Balboa, Indian Trail, Woodridge and Westview. Assessing capacity of a school is not an exact science. There is a lot of assumptions. One of the main assumption is that students come in a neat package, but we all know that they don't. I can give you a range at each school. The other concern is that this is a snap shot in time. Listed below is a current range of capacities:

School	Current Enrollment	Comfortable Growth Capacity
Balboa	324	81
Indian Trail	309	73
Woodridge	457	99
Westview	448	81

Sincerely,

Gregory Forsyth
