Description of Proposal: The Union Gospel Mission is proposing to convert an existing, abandoned nursing home into a crisis shelter for women and children. The facility will hold 130 beds. The applicant has requested a reduced parking minimum for the site. The site with the building on it has five on-site stalls; three standard stalls and two ADA stalls. The Union Gospel Mission will own the existing surface parking lot across Hogan as well, which contains 27 stalls. The development will also count 18 on-street parking spaces toward minimum parking requirements for the use. The attached site plan shows the proposed fence.

This use is classified as Community Service, which, in a Single-Family Zone requires a type III Conditional Use Permit. There will be a Public Hearing in front of the City Hearing Examiner.
