

Save the Date!

Friends of Mmofra presents

Playtime: Then and Now

illustrating the universality of play throughout culture and time

an outdoor art exhibition during

EXPO '74

50th Celebration

Spokane, Washington, USA

Special Family-Friendly Event

Friday, May 17th

5-8pm

Where: North Bank Shelter adjacent to the Ice Age Floods Playground in Riverfront Park

Tickets: $40 per person | children 10 and under free

Ticket link coming soon on AXS

Come play with us!

Mmofra means
“Children” in Akan,
one of Ghana’s
spoken languages.

Please text Jennifer Gale Compau at 509.475.2454 with any exhibition or event questions.

This exhibition and event was made possible by a generous SAGA grant and the dedicated supporters of Friends of Mmofra.

